

BAKIS Promotion and Retention Policy

Promotion and Retentions for Grades 1-3:

A student in grades 1-2-3 is promoted to the next grade if the following conditions are met:

- Attending at least 70% of school days.
- He/ She undergoes all evaluation procedures during his attendance period.

♣ The student remains in grades 1-2-3 to repeat the class if he does not comply with the two conditions in the above clause.

♣ A minimum score of 60 is approved for achieving achievement in the course.

♣ If the student is unable to achieve the passing score at the end of the year, he is subject to a remedial program in Mathematics, English and Arabic

The Remedial program:

- The duration of the program is two weeks.
- It targets the subjects of Arabic language and mathematics, in which the student did not achieve the degree of passing.
- The implementation of the program is participatory based on student self-learning, teacher, and parent support.
- The teacher identifies the student's missing learning outcomes through the results of previous central exams.
- A final evaluation is applied at the end of the specified period of the program, prepared by the subject teacher for the outputs that were included
- In the event that the learning outcomes are achieved after completing the assessment, the teacher monitors the student with a passing score of (60)
- The scorecard is extracted
- In the event that the degree of passing all the three subjects is not achieved at the end of the program implementation, the teacher's evaluation score will be considered.

- Attending the remedial program is an important step for the student to achieve learning outcomes.

Promotion and Retentions for Grades 4-12:

- Promotion: A minimum score of 60 is required for achieving in the core subjects (English, Math, Science, Arabic, Islamic, and Social Studies).
- Retake: If the student is unable to achieve the passing score at the end of the year, in three main core subjects, he/she will be subjected to retake exam and will be promoted if he/she passed (minimum score of 60%) the subjects for which the reexamination is taken. If the student failed one retake exam or more (scored less than 60%). The student will repeat the year.
- Failing and Retain: If the student is unable to achieve the passing score at the end of the year, in four main core subjects, he/she will repeat the year and the following should be implemented:
 - Student will be considered failed and will remain to repeat the class in the same year, with the following actions taken:
 - a. Developing an individual educational plan to address the skills lost during the vacation period
 - b. Summer school in coordination with the parent
 - c. Follow-up of the student's condition at the beginning of the school year in coordination with the Education Committee
 - d. Building individual Remedial Programs for the student after each final evaluation stage if he continues the same level of performance.
 - For non-Core subjects such as (ICT, Art, PE, Music, Elective, etc.). If a student scored the minimum passing score (60%), he/she will be promoted directly. If the student score less than the passing score (60%), the student will be promoted, and his actual scored mark (less than 60%) will be reported in his/her report card.
